When I'm Gone
by Anna Harvin

I got my ticket for the long way there,
Finally to el norte we will go.
And I sure would like to leave Mexico,
No more living in this sad pueblo.

When I'm gone, When I'm gone,
It won't miss me when I'm gone,
I won't miss the dirt floors,
I won't miss early chores,
oh, El Rancho Blanco won't miss me when I'm gone.

I got my ticket for the long way there,
By long train ride we will leave.
And I'm scared as we slip under the wire,
But I know California is for me.

When I'm gone, When I'm gone,
It won't miss me when I'm gone,
I won't miss the dirt floors.
I won't miss early chores,
oh, El Rancho Blanco won't miss me when I'm gone.
